Kara Eastman Officially Files to Run for the United States House of Representatives

Today, Kara Eastman filed with Nebraska's Secretary of State to run for the United States House of Representatives.

Eastman has already shown considerable strength and momentum and is gearing up for a competitive primary. Kara is excited to be running a grassroots campaign aimed at connecting with Nebraskans and hearing their concerns and vision for Nebraska's future.

- Over 10,000 doors knocked. Eastman for Congress has found 52% of respondents have committed to vote for Kara Eastman and only 1.2% are committed to voting for Mr. Ashford
- Prominent endorsements received from three local labor unions
- Reached 6160 likes on Facebook, surpassing both Mr. Ashford and Congressman Bacon
- 715 individual donors contributed to the campaign so far

Kara Eastman states:

"I am so proud of the progress our campaign has made thus far. Now we need to work even harder at the grassroots level to reach more voters and take back Nebraska's Second District. I will fight to ensure that all Americans have high-quality healthcare, affordable education, a healthy environment, and a strong economy that works for everyone. Nebraska needs leaders who will represent our shared values and stand by their convictions."

Kara is the President and CEO of Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors of Metropolitan Community College. She is the only life-long Democrat running for Congress in Nebraska's Second District.
