Kara Eastman declines nomination for MCC Chair

Today, Kara Eastman was nominated to be the Metropolitan Community College Board Chair for 2018-2019. Kara has served as the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors for the past year.

Kara declined the nomination, putting the needs of Metropolitan Community College above her own, and has nominated Steve Grabowski to serve as the MCC BOG Chair instead. Mr. Grabowski was seated by acclamation by the board. Ms. Eastman was seated by acclamation by the Board as the Vice-Chair.

Kara Eastman states:

“It is an incredible honor to be nominated as Chair of the Board of Governors of MCC. MCC needs a Chair who will be able to dedicate their full attention to the students, staff, and faculty. I would want to give 100% and could give only 99% if accepted this nomination while also running for Congress. I am proud to support Mr. Grabowski as the Chair and will continue in my role as Vice-Chair.”

Kara is the President and CEO of Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors of Metropolitan Community College. She is the only life-long Democrat running for Congress in Nebraska’s Second District.
