It's Time for Change in Our Leadership

Tonight's State of the Union address illustrates the need for change in our country's leadership. The Administration has missed the mark, and despite their rhetoric, is not putting the needs and values of Americans first.

Kara Eastman released this statement in response to the State of the Union Address:

"Our country's leadership has lost sight of what is important and good for our nation. We need to be investing in American families - ensuring they have access to quality healthcare, jobs that pay a living wage, safe homes and clean water. Carefully worded speeches do not mitigate the damage done by this administration to our environment, the deficit, and to marginalized groups."

Kara is the President and CEO of Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors of Metropolitan Community College. She is the only life-long Democrat running for Congress in Nebraska's Second District.
