The Human Rights Campaign calls
Kara Eastman the “clear choice for Nebraska voters”.

Omaha, Neb. -- The Human Rights Campaign Public Policy Committee has endorsed Kara Eastman for Congress in Nebraska’s Second District. The Human Rights Campaign is America’s largest civil rights organization working to achieve equality for LGBTQ Americans, representing more than 3 million members and supporters nationwide.

HRC National Field Director Marty Rouse said:

"Kara Eastman is the clear choice for fair-minded Nebraska voters who believe in liberty, justice, and equality for all. From access to affordable health care to quality education to LGBTQ non-discrimination protections, Kara is committed to fighting each and every day for the hard-working families of Nebraska's 2nd Congressional District. Her ability to get things done as a pragmatic problem-solver is desperately needed in Washington. HRC is proud to endorse Kara Eastman for Congress."

Kara Eastman is proud to be endorsed by the Human Rights Campaign:

“We have to do better as a country. We have to treat all people with compassion, regardless of their sexual orientation, gender identity, country of origin, race or religion. I will continue to fight for the protection and needs of all people living in our district.”

Kara is the former President and CEO of Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors of Metropolitan Community College. She is the Democratic nominee running for Congress in Nebraska’s Second District.
