Kara Eastman receives an endorsement from the NDP LGBTQIA+ Caucus

Omaha, Neb. – The Nebraska Democratic Party LGBTQIA+ Caucus has endorsed Kara Eastman for Congress in Nebraska’s Second District. Their mission is to ensure that the rights and interests of Nebraska’s LGBTQIA+ individuals are represented and recognized by the people that hold office in this state.

“Kara Eastman understands that LGBTQIA+ families want the same things all families want: clean air and water, excellent schools, safe neighborhoods, and an equal opportunity to succeed,” said Joe Shaw, Chair of the NDP LGBTQIA+ Caucus. “Kara will support and champion equality for all.”

“Every individual has the right to go to the schools they want, live in the communities they want and to live the life they want without fear and discrimination,” Kara Eastman said. “I promise to represent the interests and needs of every person in my district. I am a proud ally, support marriage equality and will stand up for those whose rights are under attack. I am proud to have the support of the NDP LGBTQIA+ Caucus.”

Kara is the former President and CEO of Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors of Metropolitan Community College. She is the Democratic nominee running for Congress in Nebraska’s Second District.
