Eastman Calls on Bacon to Disavow Nunes

Omaha, Neb. – Representative Devin Nunes (R-CA) is scheduled to speak at a fundraising dinner with Don Bacon and Kara Eastman is demanding that Bacon disavows his support.

Nunes has repeatedly politicized and undermined the investigation into Russian attacks on our democracy and falsely accused the intelligence community of conspiring against the President. Americans deserve to know the full and complete truth, and Nunes' suggestions that we stop investigating Russia's election interference is directly against our nation's best interests.

In addition, Nunes is proving to be a corrupt and immoral politician. Bacon has claimed to be a part of the effort to "drain the swamp" yet chooses to allow Nunes to join him on the campaign trail. This is not representative of Nebraska values.

Eastman demands Don Bacon renounce Devin Nunes' support:

"It is telling that Representative Bacon would partner with Representative Nunes, who is, by many counts, a corrupt politician and has done everything in his power to stymie the Russia investigation. This relationship between Bacon and Nunes should concern all who want Americans to have free and secure elections."

Kara is the former President and CEO of Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors of Metropolitan Community College. She is the Democratic nominee running for Congress in Nebraska's Second District.
