Social Security Works Endorses Kara Eastman for Congress in NE-02

Omaha, Neb. -- Social Security Works has announced their endorsement of Kara Eastman for Congress in Nebraska's Second Congressional District. Social Security Works is committed to protecting and maintaining Social Security, and improving the economic security of at-risk populations.

Jon "Bowzer" Bauman, the President of Social Security Works PAC said:

"Kara Eastman understands that healthcare is a human right. Unlike her opponent, who voted to take away healthcare from Nebraskan families, Eastman will work to improve Medicare and expand it to cover all Americans. Eastman, who was inspired to run for office after watching her dying mother struggle to afford cancer pills that cost $2,500 a month, will take on big pharma and make prescription drugs affordable for everyone. She will fight to protect and expand Social Security benefits, never cut them. Social Security Works PAC enthusiastically endorses her candidacy."

Kara Eastman is proud to have the support of Social Security Works PAC.

"I look forward to working with Social Security Works PAC to ensure that Social Security is protected, maintained and viable for generations to come," Eastman said. "I will fight for Social Security because hard-working Americans have paid into this program and deserve to receive the benefits they were promised"

Kara is the former President and CEO of Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors of Metropolitan Community College. She is the Democratic nominee running for Congress in Nebraska's Second District.
