Kara Eastman picks up another Union Endorsement with the support of the Nebraska Alliance for Retired Americans

Omaha, Neb. – The Nebraska Chapter of the Alliance for Retired Americans has announced their endorsement of Kara Eastman for Congress in Nebraska’s Second District. The NE ARAEF represents retired union members and strives to represent the interests of retirees, so they all have the opportunity to live their lives with dignity and economic security.

“The Alliance for Retired Americans slogan is ‘Let’s not be the last generation able to retire’,” begins Al Mumm, President. “Don Bacon has voted to make this the last generation able to retire by his votes to kill Medicare and Medicaid, to give tax breaks to the wealthy, even voting to cut Social Security Disability.”

“These are earned benefits that people have spent their career paying for in order to retire with dignity,” Kara Eastman says. “Congress must work to protect and expand Social Security and Medicare to fulfill the promises made to working people.”

Kara is the former President and CEO of Omaha Healthy Kids Alliance and the Vice-Chair of the Board of Governors of Metropolitan Community College. She is the Democratic nominee running for Congress in Nebraska’s Second District.
